

Nursing Patient Safety Education Conference

This 4-hour education conference will include a variety of topics related to patient safety that will enhance the knowledge of attendees and better equip nurses to deliver and sustain a culture of safety in their own institution. Nurses may earn a maximum of 4 contact hours for successfully completing the program.

Safety: Patient-centered. Nurse-driven.

When: April 14, 2011 • 1:00 - 5:00 PM

Where: Georgetown University Hotel and Conference Center (Leavey Center)

Cost: $100

How: Register online at nationalnursingpatientsafetyawards.com

For complete information, visit us at www.NationalNursingPatientSafetyAwards.com

The Division of Nursing at Georgetown University Hospital has long been recognized as a leader and innovator in nursing excellence. The First Annual National Nursing Patient Safety Awards will recognize the unique contribution of nurses in improving outcomes through the promotion of best practices in patient safety.

Established and Presented by
The Division of Nursing

Georgetown
University
Hospital

MedStar Health